SPRING AWARDS DAY

Plan now to attend the THSPA Student Media Awards Ceremony at Lipscomb University Monday, March 5, 2012. All individual awards will be presented on this date along with awards for overall evaluations and awards for the H. L. Hall Student Journalist of the Year and the Bonnie Hufford Adviser of the Year. More information will be sent to you in December.

THSPA EXISTS:

- to provide a forum for students who are interested in journalism and student media
- to offer opportunities to network with other members of the association
- to provide an educational opportunity for high school students across the state by hosting speakers and small-group workshops
- to emphasize journalistic writing and coverage in student media
- to maintain the student press as an instrument published by students, for students
- to conduct contests and workshops to encourage greater efforts from students and advisers to produce quality media
- to reward and promote excellence in high school school student media

MEMBERS WILL ALSO RECEIVE...

- a membership directory
- invitations to enter the annual Student Media Awards competition.
- a $5 discount per delegate who attends the Nov. 21 workshop. If you send five delegates, you have recouped your membership fee.
